MARCH 2019

SEASONS CHANGE

If you look out your window or perhaps watch either the channel or the segment of the news pertaining to weather you might be surprised to know that Spring will get here. It might take some time for it to arrive. And we will likely get a storm or two or even three before it gets here Spring is coming. Now you can tell this because the season seems to be shifting and the cold of January has passed us. But you can also tell by looking at the liturgical calendar.

Now people can talk about how a groundhog seeing its shadow can predict the coming of Spring. However those of us who have grown up in colder climes we know that sometimes in September you may get snow, and sometimes the April shows you are talking about are snow shower. The safest and most sure way to know that Spring is coming is the passing of Ash Wednesday, and the beginning of Lent.

Now this day and this season happen as early as the beginning of February and as late as mid-March. And with the shift of the seasons of the calendar come the shift in our liturgical focus. Think about it. Early in the year our focus is on Jesus and his birth. We ring in the New Year while still celebrating the birth of Christ. Then we shift our focus to Christ's ministry and how he walked with humanity and among us. Epiphany is when we celebrate the manifestation of God in Christ.

But then things take a different turn. The first Wednesday following the last Sunday of Epiphany marks the beginning of a new season for the church. The new season places its focus on fasting and renewal. It is a time of preparation and time to make ready. At the end of our journey of Lent sits Holy Week beginning with Palm Sunday and ending with the resurrection of Easter. But before we get

Every year someone takes the palms leftover or perhaps set aside from Palm Sunday, and dries them. Then at some point before Ash Wednesday they are burned.(Thank You Doris!) The leaves which greet Jesus as he enters Jerusalem, that were there through the entirety of the church calendar year find their ending as ashes on our foreheads at the beginning of every Lent. Think about the journey that those palms have taken over the year. And think about all the time and events which they have seen pass.

Another thought about those palms. They aren't a part of the church life during the days of Lent. Sure they are there on your forehead on Ash Wednesday and are there in your hand or on the ground on Palm Sunday, but where are they for the other days of Lent? Well, you can't see them but they are there. Not physically, not even in a tangible way that you can touch, but they are there. The ashes lead us and guide us, they focus our attention towards the end of Lent, when we will greet the beginning of the next cycle, with palms being waved greeting the arrival of the King. As Lent approaches, may we penitently greet it, may we live into its call to draw ourselves closer to God. And may we remember the ashes of Ash Wednesday through our walk of Lent.

March will be the "Walk for Water" again. There are some tentative plans during services in March to increase awareness of such a need for the world's poor when it comes to clean water and the difficulties involved to obtain it. More to come in the next few weeks.

Our mission for January was the Warming Center which totaled $300 but unfortunately one week was cancelled due to weather. There has been a basket set up on the landing for warm clothing, etc. with the help of the Longtos and Rev. Bill so please help where you can.

Hudson Valley Food Bank was the February mission.

MOVIES WITH A MEANING

When: March 15 Pot Luck dinner at 5:30-6:30pm Movie at 6:30pm Where: Schadewald Hall

There is a heavenly garden in which God takes great pleasure, because He's placed within it the loved ones that we treasure.

As we patiently await springtime... Soon the trees will give blessed shade, soon the fragrance of the flowers will fill your nose with sweetness. The song of birds above in the trees will fill your heart with praise, for God's melodies of springtime. In this special place, you will feel the peace and love of the Lord.
